STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Several suggestions on amendments to Direct Tax Laws and Indirect Tax Laws have been received in the course of the current year and after due consideration, some of these have been accepted. It is proposed to take up these suggestions in this Bill, which will thereby supplement the proposals made through the Finance Bill, 2005. The Bill, inter alia, proposes to carry out certain amendments in the Income-tax Act, 1961, the Customs Act, 1962, the Customs Tariff Act, 1975, the Central Excise Act, 1944 and the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 with the object of rationalizing and simplifying certain procedures, widening of tax base and plugging loopholes leading to leakage of revenue.

2. The Bill seeks to amend the Income-tax Act, 1961 so as to streamline the approval and monitoring process for certain charitable entities, scientific research associations, etc., prescribing filing of return by certain charitable entities with aggregate annual receipts below one crore rupees, requiring payment exceeding twenty thousand rupees by way of an account payee cheque or account payee bank draft, prescribing TDS on renting of plant and machinery, equipment, royalty and non-compete fee and phased withdrawal of exemption to North-Eastern Finance Development Corporation Limited over the next five years. It is further proposed to exclude (from the previous year 2004-2005) any sum received from a charitable entity or a local authority without consideration from the ambit of 'income from other sources'. It is also proposed to aggregate the said sums received without consideration (from the previous year 2006-2007) and to enhance the existing limit of twenty-five thousand rupees to fifty thousand rupees for the purpose of inclusion under 'income from other sources'. Certain other amendments such as rounding off of demands or refunds to the nearest multiple of ten rupees, empowering the Tax Recovery Officer to exercise limited powers of the Assessing Officer, allowing for revision of penalty orders on receipt of appellate orders regarding assessment, etc., are also proposed to be carried out in the Income-tax Act.

3. The Bill also seeks to carry out certain amendments in the Customs Act, 1962, Customs Tariff Act, 1975 and Central Excise Act, 1944 which inter alia facilitates voluntary payment of tax dues so as to provide a mechanism for resolving disputes at the earliest, to facilitate recovery of amount due as revenue to the Government and to incorporate certain measures to curb evasion of Customs and Central Excise duties.

4. The Bill also seeks to amend the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 so as to expeditiously and smoothly resolve inter-State disputes, regarding levy of Central Sales Tax by the State Governments by ensuring that all pending proceedings are transferred to the Authority notified under sub-section (1) of section 24 of the said Act.

5. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects. The notes on clauses explain the various provisions of the Bill.

Under the existing provision contained in section 10 of the Income-tax Act, any income falling within the various clauses of that section shall not be included in computing the total income of a previous year of any person.

It is proposed to insert a new clause (23BBE) in section 10 so as to provide that any income of the North-Eastern Development Finance Corporation Limited, a company formed and registered under the Companies Act, 1956, shall not be included in computing its total income. Under the existing provisions contained in the first proviso to clause (23C) of section 10, the fund or trust or institution or any university or other educational institution or any hospital or other medical institution referred to in sub-clause (iv) or sub-clause (v) or sub-clause (vi) or sub-clause (via) of said clause (23C) shall make an application in the prescribed form and in the manner to the prescribed authority for the purpose of grant of exemption under those sub-clauses. It is further proposed to insert tenth proviso after the ninth proviso as so inserted so as to provide that where the total income of the fund or trust or institution or any university or other educational institution or any hospital or other medical institution referred to in sub-clause (iv) or sub-clause (v) or sub-clause (vi) or sub-clause (via), without giving effect to the provisions of the said sub-clauses of clause (23C), exceeds the maximum amount which is not chargeable to tax in any previous year, such trust or institution or university or other educational institution or hospital or other medical institution shall get its accounts audited by an accountant as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288 and furnish along with the return of income for the relevant assessment year, the audited accounts and the report of such audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountant and setting forth such particulars as may be prescribed.

Clause 30 seeks to insert a new section 154B in the Customs Act, which empowers the Central Government to publish the names and other particular information relating to any proceedings or prosecutions under the Act in respect of any person as the Central Government may think fit. Sub-section (2) provides that no publication shall be made in relation to any penalty imposed under the Act if the time of presenting an appeal before the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Tribunal has expired without an appeal having been presented or has been disposed of. It is also provided to publish the names of directors, managing agents, secretaries, treasurers or managers of the company or the partners of a firm.

Customs Tariff

Clause 31 seeks to amend the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 8B of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 to remove the ambiguity concerning exemption from an application of safeguard duty for developing countries with a view to align with corresponding provision under Article 9.1 of WTO Agreement on Safeguard.

Excise

Clause 32 seeks to—

(i) insert sub-section (1A) and provisos to sub-section (2) in section 11A of the Central Excise Act, so as to provide an option for voluntary payment within thirty days of receipt of a notice by a producer, manufacturer or any other person who has been issued with the show cause notice for evasion of duty on account of fraud, suppression of facts and wilful mis-statement or for erroneous refund under the proviso to sub-section (1).

(ii) envisage a reduced amount of penalty at twenty-five per cent. of the duty specified in the notice. To avail the option such person may pay the duty specified in the said notice either in full along with interest and penalty at the rate of twenty-five per cent., of the duty paid or a part thereof along with interest and penalty at twenty five-per cent., of the duty so accepted and paid. The scheme also envisages termination of proceedings against the co-noticee if any, to the proceeding in the event of payment of duty in full along with interest and twenty-five per cent. of duty is paid as penalty within thirty days of receipt of the notice.

Clause 33 seeks to insert a new section 11DDA in the Central Excise Act, 1944 to provide for provisional attachment of property belonging to a person to whom a notice is served under sub-section (1) of 11A or sub-section (2) of 11D to protect revenue in certain cases.

Clause 34 seeks to amend sub-section (2) of section 35E of the Central Excise Act, 1944 to facilitate an officer other than the adjudicating authority to file an appeal before the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Appellate Tribunal, as the case may be.

Clause 35 seeks to insert a new section 37E in the Central Excise Act to provide for publication of information relating to any proceedings or prosecutions under the Act in respect of such person as the Central Government may think fit. Sub-section (2) categorically prescribes that no publication shall be made in relation to any penalty imposed under the act until the time of presenting an appeal, before the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Tribunal, has been expired without an appeal having been presented or has been disposed of. It is also provided to publish the names of directors, managing agents, secretaries, treasurers or managers of the company or the partners of a firm.

Clause 36 seeks insert two provisos in sub-rule (3) of rule 16 of the Central Excise Rules, 2002 retrospectively for the period from 29th day of May 2003 and ending with 8th day of July, 2004 to declare independent wire drawing units as “assessee” to resolve multiple proceedings and also to redress the grievances of discrimination against wire drawing units. The process of “wire drawing” from “wire rods” has been held as not amounting to manufacture by the Supreme Court. Therefore, the benefit of credit of duty availed by the manufacturers was withdrawn on 29.5.2003 by a circular issued by the Board. However, certain manufacturers continued to pay duty and to pass on the credit to the ultimate buyer for further manufacture. By an amendment vide section 89 of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2004, note 10 was inserted in Section XV of the Central Excise Tariff Act, 1985 to declare the said process as 'manufacture'.

Miscellaneous

Clause 37 seeks to amend section 25 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 to provide for transfer of proceedings relating to inter-State disputes falling under section 6A read with section 9 of the said Act pending before an appellate authority of a State or the Union territory to the Authority notified under section sub-section (1) of section 24 of the said Act.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 2 of the Bill seeks to amend section 2 of the Income-tax Act so as to provide that the Tax Recovery Officer may also exercise or perform such powers and functions which are conferred on, or assigned to, an Assessing Officer. The proposed amendment empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe, by rules, such powers and functions to be exercised by the Tax Recovery Officer.

2. Item (ii) of sub-clause (b) of clause 3 of the Bill seeks to insert two new provisos after the eighth proviso in clause (23C) of section 10 of the Income-tax Act relating to incomes not included in the total income. In the tenth proviso as so inserted after the ninth proviso, it is proposed that where the total income of the fund or trust or institution or any university or other educational institution or any hospital or other medical institution referred to in sub-clause (iv) or sub-clause (v) or sub-clause (vi) or sub-clause (via), without giving effect to the provisions of the said sub-clauses of clause (23C) of section 10, exceeds the maximum amount which is not chargeable to tax in any previous year, such trust or institution or university or other educational institution or hospital or other medical institution shall get its accounts audited by an accountant as defined in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288 and furnish along with the return of income for the relevant assessment year, the audited accounts and the report of such audit in the prescribed form. This proviso confers power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to notify, by rules made by it, the form in which such report of audit is to be furnished along with the return of income and the particulars which such report shall contain.

3. Sub-clause (a) of clause 5 seeks to empower the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the guidelines, the manner and the conditions subject to which approval is to be granted to an association university, college or other institution under clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of section 35 of the Income-tax Act. Sub-clause (b) of clause 5 seeks to empower the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the guidelines, the manner and the conditions subject to which approval is to be granted to a university, college or other institution under clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 35 of the Income-tax Act.

4. The matters in respect of which rules may be made in accordance with the aforesaid provisions of the Bill are matters of procedure or detail and it is not practical to provide for them in the Bill itself.

5. The delegation of legislative powers is, therefore, of a normal character.
